Mahi Natural is a lovely, friendly and eco conscious company currently looking for sales representatives to provide regular and maintained in-store support for our natural skincare brand- Hopes Relief. Hopes Relief is Australia's No1 natural cream for itchy dry skin and skin prone to eczema, psoriasis and dermatitis.

Our candidate will be required to learn about the brands and their natural ingredients and actions and be able to communicate the unique selling points of the products to customers in store who may be seeking such goods. Demonstrable sales experience and a record of success is essential and experience of working in health stores is strongly advantageous.

The position would be responsible for:

-Creating brand awareness
- Demonstrating and selling the products to customers
- Building relationships with the store staff
- Keeping track of stock levels and merchandising

The roles is based in London and the surrounding areas. We pay £7-9p/hr (experience dependent) + £12 expenses p/day and 15% commission is offered on goods sold.

If you are interested in working between 6 -10hours + a week, can work at least one day on the weekend (Sat or Sun), have a happy, confident and out-going disposition we would love to hear from you!